

While Navy Game Still Is Under Ban Cadets Will Play College Football Teams This Season—Giants Beaten Again

ARMY GETS PERMIT TO PLAY FOOTBALL

War Department Allows Organization of Eleven, but Retains Ban on Navy Game.

CAPT. KEYES WILL COACH

New Mentor Was on 1912 Team—Work of Rearranging Days Is Begun.

Special Despatch to The Sun.

WEST POINT, N. Y., Sept. 4.—Though there will be no Army-Navy game this year the Army will send a football team to play the Navy team at Annapolis, Md., this afternoon on the receipt of an order from the War Department permitting the academy to organize a football team to compete against the Navy team.

The order had the proviso that the Army and Navy are great rivals that football game between them would mean too much to the public which would distract the attention of the academy from its military work.

To take the place of Capt. Charles Day as head football coach, Capt. Geoffrey Keyes, who was graduated from the academy in 1912, today was appointed. Capt. Keyes is an instructor in tactics at the academy and his presence here is rather fortunate for West Point for it has been decided by the War Department to detail no army officers to coach for college football.

Capt. Keyes has had the benefit of the coaching of both Capt. Daly and Capt. Ernest Graves, the line coach, and knows the game well. He is a former Army player here will help Capt. Keyes. The new coach made some reputation as a member of the 1911 and 1912 teams here and played with Paul Fuller, Arnold, Hyatt and Devere.

Capt. J. S. McMahon today was appointed the new Army football representative in place of Capt. Frank. The latter was named only last winter to take the place of Capt. Phil Hayes. Capt. James R. Crawford is secretary-treasurer of the Athletic Council, once more revived.

The task which faces Capt. McMahon is no easy one for he must get up a schedule for the season, which is the one of the cancelled last spring, when the old schedule for the year was received here. The old schedule had games with Holy Cross, Pennsylvania, West Virginia, Springfield, Y. M. C. A. College Villanova, Notre Dame, Maine and Bowdoin in the order named.

Capt. McMahon expects to have no trouble in getting up a new set of games. Though the time for practice will be very limited, the cadets expect to get out some team. Work will be started immediately.

PIRATES WIN 4 IN A ROW!

For First Time This Season Pittsburgh Makes Clean Sweep of Series.

PITTSBURGH, Sept. 4.—(National)—Pittsburgh completed a row of four successive victories for the first time this season by defeating the Cardinals in ten innings here today. The locals twice tied the score. In the tenth, with two men out, Carey was passed and went out on a home run. The Cardinals then took the lead at the first base line and Boeckel singled, sending Carey in with the winning run.

CALDWELL IN WAY OF BOSTON VICTORY

Puts Further Crimp Into Pennant Hopes of Red Sox—Yankees Break Even.

Special Despatch to The Sun.

BOSTON, Sept. 4.—The Yankees gave the world's champions another hard push today by defeating the Red Sox 4 to 2. The Yankees broke even in the series.

An interesting feature of the second game was the fact that the victory was the second that Caldwell has achieved against the Red Sox in three years. The first game was a 10 to 1 victory in 1914.

BARNES'S PITCHING WINS FOR BRAVES

Boston Right Hander Gives Game Exhibition in Defeating Giants, 3 to 1.

By FREDERICK G. LEE.

The opinion that Pop Krickorjian's young draft soldiers will carry to Yaphank for the Giants is that it is rather fortunate for the Harlem crew that the Pacific coast schedule doesn't prevail in the National League. The Coast League season doesn't end until some where around election, and an eight game series on September 5 can be dissolved quite easily by slow attrition.

Just now the Giants are not going anywhere. They are just floating along, playing 500 or 600 games, and their lead to carry them safely into port. They again were tomahawked on the Polo Grounds yesterday by the lowly Boston Braves, who beat them 3 to 1. The victory gave Boston the short series, two games to one, it being the first series the Braves have won in the National League.

In addition to Manhattan's quota of draft troops the game was attended by high class and military dignitaries, including Gen. Schuyler and Major-General Bell. The game was a pitching exhibition for the Braves, who showed their prowess in the field.

The Braves put up a flashy exhibition. They fell on only one chance. And falling means the taken literally rather than figuratively. Powell came out of Robertson's high fly in the eighth and acted as though he had been hit by a bullet. He fell back on the ground, the fly ball falling safe for a double and giving the Giants their only score. The Braves broke even in the series.

FLOTSAM AND DETSAM FROM WORLD OF AMATEUR SPORT

By DANIEL.

THEY are falling into line better than expected. Yesterday, by grace of an order from the Secretary of War, the Army left the ranks of those who will not play football. Last week the Navy made a similar change and on Sunday we learned that Harvard had arranged to play several "informal" games. Only Yale and Princeton now remain as the dissenters. No matter what the action of the Yale and Princeton are, we are assured of a successful season. Of course we shall miss the big games, but in war time we must learn to regard three-quarters of a loaf as an exceedingly generous ration.

Though it has lost nine regulars through graduation the Army this season should be just as strong, comparatively, as it was last year, when it went through the campaign without a defeat. It will have to do without the great McGraw, Egan, and Butler, McEachern, Ford, Holmes, Mullen, Cole and Redfield. However, it still has the only Simer G. Oliphant, the captain, who has two more years to go. Gene Vidal, the other star back, also remains.

The best of the new recruits at the Point is "Bully" Vandegrift, who was All Southern tackle at Alabama in 1915 and was rated one of the best players in the country. Vandegrift is a remarkable player, a good kicker, a good punter, and a good blocker. He is a real star.

The Army should have no trouble in getting up a new schedule. The game with Pennsylvania may be rearranged, though the original date, October 6, already has been given to the Quakers for a football game.
